

Afikoman, 2023

Found

A young woman in a navy-blue dress faces away from the camera. She has long curly brown hair, that lightens in color as it reaches the end, hanging loose at her back. She is hiding two items behind her back, visible to the camera. She is holding in her right hand a bag, which is partially obscured by a round piece of Matzoh that she is holding in her left hand. The Matzoh is tan, darkening towards its edges. The bag is tan in color and has a drawstring at the top. It is decorated with a drawing of three pieces of matzoh, the middle of which is broken, and four Hebrew letters that are visible: Aleph, Pei, Yod, and Qof; the beginning of the word 'Afikomen.'
