

L'Dor V'Dor, 2023

From Generation to Generation

An older woman, (the artist's mother), is facing the camera, in front of a gray background. She is wearing a dark blue dress. One hand sits on her lap while the other holds up a photograph in a gold frame, completely blocking her face. The photograph is in sepia tones and is the profile of a young woman, wearing a pearl necklace and looking seriously off into the distance.
